

the royal balinese rijstafel

At Swept Away, we offer a unique opportunity to immerse your senses in the true flavours and aromas of this island paradise. The menu has been compiled carefully in order to make this experience accessible for the whole family.

Most Balinese meals are eaten quickly and without fanfare. Dining out and in groups is not a normal social custom. Festivals are the major exception. Food is prepared in an elaborate and decorative manner and is eaten communally, marking the occasion as something out of the ordinary.
